The Myth of Freedom Published by Thriftbooks.com User , 22 years ago I disagree with the other person reviewing this book, this is a very traditional book, a no-nonsense approach to buddhist practice and against a "sugar and spice" spiritual materialism (fake spirituality).

The Myth of Freedom and the Way of... book by Chögyam Trungpa

His Myth of Freedom is the eerily precise description of our self-imprisonment, the embarrassing details of ego's resourceful mutability and disguise. Yet in offering this display of American selfhood, Trungpa Rinpoche demonstrates how each obsessive act is already suffused with space, the primordial space of enlightenment.
